

Preventing and Addressing Alcohol and Drug Problems A Handbook for Clergy

Handbook Now Available in Quantities

The latest product developed by NACoA for The Clergy Education and Training Project® is Preventing and Addressing Alcohol and Drug Problems: A Handbook for Clergy. This handbook is designed as a convenient reference for practicing clergy and provides basic information on alcoholism and drug addiction, the impact of parental addiction on children, facts about adolescent alcohol and drug use, and simple prevention and intervention strategies. It also has an appendix with handouts for use with children of alcohol and drug dependent parents.

NACoA also has developed an on-line course based on this handbook. The course is designed to help clergy attain knowledge and skills about prevention of alcohol and drugs, as well as the impact of family addiction and substance use disorders on children and youth. It provides practical steps that can be taken to help children and youth in congregations and communities. It is a 3-hour contact course and costs $35.
